

Delivering Excellence

IT & Engineering Staffing and Solutions

Deriving maximum value from technology takes a strong alignment with an organization's business goals. It takes a clear vision and precise execution. It takes highly skilled professionals with a proven ability to deliver. It takes a TechServe Alliance firm. Our member companies consistently deliver IT & engineering talent and solutions of the highest quality, along with a commitment to uncompromising integrity. When success of a project is critical, consider a TechServe Alliance firm, and consider it done.

A Collaborative Network

TechServe Alliance member companies represent diverse segments of the IT & engineering staffing and solutions industry, from staff augmentation and solutions to project management and end-to-end outsourcing. Member companies range from regional boutiques to large firms with a nationwide network of offices. TechServe Alliance member companies are strongly committed to:

- understanding both your technical and business goals
- long-term client relationships built upon exceeding your expectations
- fair business practices and adhering to the highest ethical standards
- staying up-to-date on market and legal trends that impact your ability to access qualified talent

Representing the best firms in the industry, TechServe Alliance members are distinguished by the consistent value they provide to clients every day. Everything we do as an alliance positions our member companies as the "gold standard" for industry expertise, innovation, efficiency and professionalism.

Exceptional Technical Talent

The core competency of TechServe Alliance member companies is the ability to effectively qualify and deploy exceptional technical talent that meets the specific needs of clients. By employing industry best practices and continually cultivating relationships with the best and brightest among IT and engineering professionals, TechServe Alliance firms are the best-equipped companies to deliver exceptional services.

Uncompromising Integrity

In client and consultant interactions, our member companies adhere to a framework of ethical business practices. From a commitment to equal opportunity and honesty in communications to protecting the intellectual property of clients, our members subscribe to the industry's most rigorous code of conduct.

Access to Industry Best Practices

With a TechServe Alliance member company as your partner, you have access to the collective knowledge and best practices of an entire industry. TechServe Alliance members can tap extensive resources, including industry-leading research, education, training and certification programs.

Legal Compliance & Legislative Advocacy

TechServe Alliance members have access to a wide range of resources that allows them to stay compliant with legal and regulatory requirements. From model contracts and legislative alerts to the latest developments in labor and employment law, TechServe Alliance members are well equipped to mitigate legal risk in client engagements. TechServe Alliance also serves as the voice of the industry before the U.S. Congress and other policymakers, representing the interests of IT & engineering staffing and solutions firms and the clients that rely on their services.

About TechServe Alliance

TechServe Alliance is the national trade association of the IT & engineering staffing and solutions industry. We help member firms achieve business goals while advancing the interests of the industry through advocacy before policymakers, public relations and the promotion of ethics and performance standards.
